WILSON'S CAMPAIGN.

The Champion of Tariff Reform Speaks at Piedmont.

PIEDMONT, W. Va., Oct. 13.--The elements are making the tour of Chairman Wilson and his party one of trials and troubles. For three days they have been riding over the roughest of mountain roads, in cold, raw winds, and Thursday and yesterday this was made more disagreeable by a drizzling rain. Despite the unfavorable weather, the distinguished tariff reformer was welcomed by several thousand enthusiastic supporters here last night.

Chairman Wilson, ex-Gov. Wilson and Congressman Blanchard spoke. The former made a strictly tariff speech, in which he explained and defended his London speech, declaring it was intentionally garbled by republican speakers. He declared that every voter in his district would be given a copy of that speech and be given a chance to judge of it for themselves.

In his speech he defended the tariff bill as passed by the house, and the bill as finally made a law was not what he would have had it, but was such a great step forward in the cause of tariff reform that he could not find it in his heart to do other than give it his hearty approval.

He was received with great applause and before and at the conclusion of his speech was given an ovation.

STEVENSON AT ROCK ISLAND.

The Vice-President Addresses Two Thousand People--Other Speeches.

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., Oct. 13.--Vice-President Stevenson spoke to 2,000 people at Harper's theater last night. An immense number of people who had followed the speaker as an escorting procession were unable to gain admittance. Maj. H. C. Connelly presided, introducing the vice-president in an eloquent manner. The speaker talked for an hour and a half on the tariff, defending the measure adopted by the recent congress, contrasting it with the McKinley bill and maintaining that its provisions were more beneficial to the people at large.

Speaking of the recent financial stringency, he attributed it to the effect of republican legislation, the period of oppression having begun before the democratic administration went into power, and while the McKinley bill was in full operation. He enumerated them by item the various articles in which the tariff was reduced.

Speeches were made by Bernard I. Claggett, candidate for state treasurer, and Jonas W. Olsen, candidate for congress in the tenth district.

JOHN SHERMAN

Makes His Debut in the Ohio Campaign--The Name of McKinley Arouses Enthusiasm.

AKRON, O., Oct. 13.--Senator John Sherman made his debut in the Ohio campaign with a strong speech at Assembly hall last night. Senator Sherman was in excellent voice, although suffering from a cold, which made it necessary for him to take refuge frequently in a handkerchief and a glass of water. Every time McKinley's name was mentioned it was applauded to the echo. The applause became tumultuous when the senator, with telling emphasis, after a stinging arraignment of the present administration, nominated McKinley for president in '96. The address occupied an hour and a half in delivery.

A TURBULENT MEETING.

England Denounced and Free Coinage Advocated by the Marquis de Mores.

PARIS, Oct. 13.--A scheme of reform was expounded by the Marquis de Mores at a meeting held in this city Thursday evening. The marquis denounced England's exploitation of gold, and declared that it was England's monopolistic system that had deprived France of capital, in the place of which England had flooded France with raw materials, which only represented the interest on capital lent. He advocated free coinage and the suppression of the 15, to 1 gold and silver ratio. Adoption of these measures would compel Great Britain to change her currency or pay double for her food supply.

The marquis then began discussion of the situation in Egypt when the meeting became turbulent and finally broke up, the uproar being so great that the speaker could not be heard.

Recalled for Failure to Effect Japanese Reforms in Corea.

LONDON, Oct. 13.--A dispatch to the Pall Mall Gazette from Yokohama says that Osei Ketsuk, the Japanese soldier and diplomat, has been recalled, owing to his failure to effect Japanese reforms in Corea. Count Inamine, Japanese minister of the interior, will shortly proceed to Corea.

Better Hurry Up.

FATALLY BURNED

In a Futile Effort to Save His Babe from His Burning Residence.

WASHINGTON, Pa., Oct. 13.--Yesterday morning, during the momentary absence of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Mowl from their residence in West Bethlehem township, the house caught fire. Mowl ran in to save his 5-months-old child which was sleeping in a cradle. The cradle was carried out, but the infant was not in it. It is supposed that in his excitement the baby was dropped from the cradle.

The house and contents were consumed, but no trace of the infant's body can be found. The father was badly burned in his effort to save his child and cannot recover.

Will Proceed to Reform the Government of Corea.

LONDON, Oct. 13.--A dispatch to the Central News from Tokio says that Corea, being cleared of Chinese, the opportunity has arrived for Japan to undertake a thorough internal reform of the government of that country. In order to carry out this reform the presence of an experienced minister is necessary and for this purpose Count Inamine, Japanese minister of the interior, has been sent to Corea. The emperor has the fullest confidence in Count Inamine, who will proceed at once in the war ship Yashiro to Chumelipo. In Corea he will act as a special advisory ambassador.

Ordered to Settle with the Siletz Indians in Oregon.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.--Special Agent Lane, of the Indian Bureau, has been ordered to begin the payment of $40,000 to the Siletz Indians in Oregon at the rate of $75 per capita under a recent treaty between those Indians and the United States. Besides this sum $100,000 has been placed in the treasury to the credit of these Indians, and will draw interest at the rate of 5 per cent.

If free sugar cheapened it to the consumer—and that it did no one will deny—the present tax of 40 per cent will make sugar dearer to the consumer. No one but an ass or some one after votes will argue anything else.

The Democratic campaigners are still trying to catch suckers with the assumption that a 40 per cent. tax on sugar will not raise the price of sugar. These campaigners can always find a few suckers in every community they can fool every time they come along, but they will not soon again fool the masses as they did in 1890 and 1892.

YESTERDAY Congressman Thomas B. Reed telegraphed Mr. Moulton, of Chicago, chairman of the committee on Arrangements of the Hamilton Club, that since his telegram of last night promising to be there on Oct. 20, he had discovered he had made a previous engagement for that date. Mr. Reed asked the managers of the club to postpone arrangements if possible for one week.

STEVENSON is coming to Missouri to help the Democrats, and they haven't been in greater need of help since the time when they were trying to take the state out of the Union.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The chances are that since the people have discovered the real character of the Democratic party, as they did in 1890, Mr. Stevenson will not be able to do much more for Missouri Democrats than he did during the days of secession.

The only claim the tariff reformers make for the new tariff law is that it lowers the rate of duty and makes the average percentage less. Who is benefited by these lower duties? Roger Q. Mills in a speech in the senate said: "What has been the fact in reference to every tariff act in the history of the government that reduces duties? Importations increase, and with increased importations comes increased revenues." Mr. Springer has also said that the new tariff act will increase importations and increase revenue. So here we have the Democratic war on labor: Increased importation means diminished production at home; diminished production means diminished employment; diminished employment means idleness and lower wages; and these mean free soup-houses and diminished consumption, and diminished consumption means hard times.

THERE has not been a time since the war when the Democratic campaigners did as much downright, vicious and wholesale lying as they are doing now. The reason probably is that the party has not been in as tight papers as it now is since it made the effort to defeat Abraham Lincoln when he was trying to restore the Union. Take as an example of this fact the effort made by Vice President Stevenson at Lincoln to absolve himself from any blame as to the objectionable feature of the new tariff bill. In his speech at that place he told the people that had he had an opportunity to vote the sugar trust would have been defeated. But that is precisely the opportunity Adlai had when the vote in the Senate was a tie and he gave his vote in favor of the sugar trust. Adlai is a candidate for President and could not afford to offend the Democratic sugar trust because he needs it in his business.

McKinley and Reed.

The Chicago Evening Journal long since assumed that the people would not prefer McKinley for president because he stood as the embodiment of high protection, and that the vote of the people in 1892 showed them to be more conservative. The fact having been subsequently developed that the people are for McKinley and that millions of them are clamoring toward great centers to see and hear him and shout for him as the next president, the Journal is a little worried, and yesterday, after admitting that the people were crowding to honor McKinley if attempted to discount the clamor for him in the following:

Thomas B. Reed will be along here one of these days, and then there will be another uprising of Republican hosts—one that will mean more for the campaign of '96 than the demonstrations aroused by the presence of the author of the McKinley law. The honor paid—and justly paid—to McKinley faces toward the past; that accorded to this Maine leader faces toward the future.

Now Thomas B. Reed has a pretty warm spot in the hearts of the patriotic people of America, but like the indulgent parent who selects one son for one calling and the other for another, the people have selected Gov. McKinley for the next President of the United States, and it matters not how greatly they may esteem the magnificent Tom Reed there can be no such "uprising of the Republican hosts" for him as there has been for McKinley, and if any such thing is attempted in Illinois by those who desire to beat the people out of their choice, they will do it at the expense of Mr. Reed.

The honors paid McKinley do not face to the past alone, as the Journal would have it, but to the future as well. The people were lied to and deceived in 1890 and 1892 in regard to the McKinley tariff law by free traders and a few Republicans who called themselves conservatives. They have found this out since the Democrats got into power, and now they are clamoring for McKinley and their faces and their voices are directed toward the future. They want to get back on the McKinley road and they will climb over every false prophet and false doctrine and elect McKinley, and by that election give notice to the world in language that cannot be mistaken that in America we have no use for Wilsonism, Clevelandism and conservatism. There is but one man in America to-day for whom the people will rise up like a cyclone. That man is McKinley.

Who is This Springer?

The Decatur Review has undertaken to compare the Republican candidate for congress with the Democratic candidate, and does this to the great disparagement of Major Connolly and the padding out of Bounding Bill Springer. Well, the people have this matter in hand, and they can determine after hearing the two men, who is the trimmer and apologist for a rotten congress, rotten legislation, and a rotten policy, and who is the statesman.

Maj. James A. Connolly is a man who has honesty and wisdom enough to have an established opinion, as to party policies, which cannot be said of Springer. In 1893 Mr. Springer refused to pay his income tax to the government, holding that the act was unconstitutional, and fought it until the government took his property to satisfy the debt, and in 1894 he favored an income tax. From 1873 down to the session of the last congress Springer was in favor of free coinage of silver and voted over 20 times for such a proposition, but as soon as his party got into power he changed his policy and opposed free silver. In 1890 and again in 1892 Mr. Springer told the Illinois farmers they could not afford to raise wheat at 70 cents; that they lost money every time they did it, and that they would not find relief from that condition save by a return of the Democrats to power; that now, when that party is in power and its ruinous policies have crippled the power of consumption to such an extent that the farmer's wheat brings him only 42 cents a bushel, that same Springer tells the farmer that he never was so prosperous. When Cleveland and Gresham disgraced the government by their stupidity in the Queen Lil affair, Mr. Springer was a cuckoo and proclaimed very loudly and very unnecessarily his intention to defend the course of the president in a speech, but the speech was never made. The president made an ignominious failure of the Hawaiian affair, and left his brood of cuckoos to look after themselves, and the world lost that speech. This is the man who is said to stand out conspicuously as a man of brains. He may have brains, but if he has he has not used them, and that is the reason the people of the new district propose to elect a man who will at least be consistent.

There will be a race meeting at the Greggdale Driving Park near Tuscola, October 16, 17 and 18. The purses aggregate $1500. Over 100 fast horses are entered. Mr. Gregg's horses were at the Decatur races this week.

Good Health, keep it by drinking the celebrated A. B. C. Bohemian Bottled Beer made by the St. Louis, American Brewing Co. The best hops and barley goes to make it, there is none like it. Geo. Kraft, wholesale dealer.

At her home at 1543 North Water street, last evening, Mrs. W. F. Dennis entertained the members of her class at the Grace M. E. Sunday school. The guests included Misses Mabel and Gertrude Phillips, Stella Williams, Lillian King, Josephine Pike, Pearl Higginbotham, Emma Mothersbaugh, Stella Kell, Nona and Jessie Morgan and Cora Simeral.

AUCTIONEER.—I am prepared to fill all engagements as an auctioneer in Decatur and in the country. First-class work and satisfaction guaranteed. JACOB TIDROW, No. 250 East Wood St. 8-dtf

JULIUS REYNOLDS, a miner, was injured in the new coal shaft yesterday. About a ton of coal fell on him, breaking both bones of his left arm and injuring his hip. His body was badly bruised but he was not injured internally. He was taken to his home, No. 553 North Lee street, where Dr. Everett J. Brown was called to attend him. Reynolds will probably be able to work again in a few weeks.

In the county court yesterday Isaac F. Pharo, administrator of the estate of Joseph H. Pharo, filed a petition for leave to compromise a suit against the Union Stock Yard and Transit company of Chicago. The petitioner was father of Joseph H. Pharo, deceased, and on behalf of the estate had received from the company a proposal to compromise an action brought against the company by the payment of $500. He thought that would be better than prosecuting the suit, and his attorneys think so, too. The permission will be given.

CLOSE OF THE RACES.

Prestoria Wilkes and Alzippa Come in First, Jack Sheppard Second.

A Dead Heat in the Running Race—The Run Off Won by Harrison.

The October meeting of the Decatur Trotting Association closed last evening, after four days of fairly good weather for the season, and a round of exciting races for the entertainment of the people. The attendance for the week was not up to the standard, mainly because of the chilliness. Nevertheless the association put up a line of the best contests to be seen anywhere, and every purse was paid in full.

Friday was a day of hot work on the track with R. R. Montgomery's handsome chestnut mare, Prestoria Wilkes, in the pace. She won the purse as she pleased almost, and in the last heat came down almost to a walk under the wire. She went the first mile in 2:23 1/2. In the free-for-all trot it was a race between Alzippa and Jack Sheppard, but Jack had to be content with second money.

In the run of Harrison won. Time 1:31 and 1:32. Running race, five furlongs, $100—Prince Peyton won in 1:02 with Tam Glen second and Little Jake third. Red Wile, R. B. Fryer, St. Peter, Mida, Belmont, Prince Anderson and Betty Brock ran unplaced.

NOTES.

Thursday Billie Downing drove J. R. Race's black horse, "Frenchy Hal" a mile to beat 2:30, and he came under the wire in 2:30 flat. The horse has great speed, and with proper handling will be a winner. He is young yet.

It was a good week for Andy Dunston, the blacksmith, who took in more money in one day than he did during the week of the August meeting.

Live Stock Notes.

The receipts of live stock so far this week in Chicago show a large decrease in everything except sheep.

The hog cholera is still raging in the country just west of Heyworth, and the cold weather does not seem to have had much effect on it, as hundreds of hogs are dying every week.

Of the 14,526 sheep exported alive the last week in September, Canada sent 7490 of them. The gain in the United States exports, however, is very marked and it is to be hoped the business will be encouraged.

Live stock receipts continue to show a decrease in everything except sheep, which are being sent to market as fast as possible, owners evidently believing that there is no profit in them since the admission of free wool.

The fat stock show is to be held in Chicago Nov. 22 to Dec. 1. The state board of agriculture have decided to devote $15,000 to premiums, $5,000 to light horse and fancy rigs, $3,000 to heavy draft horses, $2,500 to cattle, $750 to sheep, $800 to hogs and $1,300 to poultry.

Cleveland's Minstrels.

All the pretty girls are in raptures when they hear that W. S. Cleveland's All United Minstrels are coming, and they are informed that there is only one Benedict in the company. And they are not sad, if disappointed, when they come to know that that Benedict is front-named Lew, at and with whom they have laughed so many times. This company in conjunction with the original Billy Emerson will appear at the Grand opera house for one performance next Monday evening, Oct. 15.

The Musical Queen.

Monday evening, October 15, Madame Lizzie Pugh Dugan, of Indianapolis, famous as the musical queen, will appear at the W. C. T. U. hall in Library Block. She is known as the peerless soprano. Madame Dugan's travels through the east have been marked with grand success. This mere mention of her name to appear in many eastern cities is enough to crowd the halls in which she sings. 12-3t

Republican Meetings.

Monday evening, Oct. 15—Hon. F. X. Schoonmaker, of New Jersey, at the Tabernacle.

Monday evening, Oct. 22—Col. A. C. Matthews of Pittsfield and Hon. J. E. Sharrock, at the Tabernacle.

Monday evening, Oct. 29—Hon. Shelby M. Cullom and Hon. W. G. Cochran, at the Tabernacle.

A SQUADRON OF CAVALRY.

Two More Troops to be Added to the National Guard.

The Illinois state militia will be strengthened during this winter by the addition of two more troops of cavalry, and steps are now being taken by the adjutant general to organize these bodies. One troop will be located at Springfield and the other at Chicago. As is known there are already two troops, A of Chicago and B of Bloomington. Until the effectiveness and efficiency of the cavalry was demonstrated in suppressing riots during the strike troubles of July, military men looked upon militia cavalry as more ornamental than useful. Since July, however, a change has come over their belief, and it has been deemed wise to add two more troops, and thus form a squadron. This body will probably be commanded by Col. Bryan, of Chicago, who will rank as Major. It will be remembered that he accompanied Troop B, on their overland trip to Springfield three years ago. He is a popular officer. Inquiry at Chicago and Springfield has developed the information that additional companies could easily be organized, and there is but little doubt but that the next legislature will pass a law empowering Adj. Gen. Orendorff to organize the two additional troops.

The Death Record.

Mrs. H. B. Stokes died at her home in Bridgeville, Ohio, Tuesday, October 9th. She was a sister of Mrs. E. P. Bishop. The funeral was held at Lebanon, Ohio, on Friday.

Mrs. Edward Maddox died of a complication of diseases at her home in Long Creek township Friday morning, October 12, aged 74 years. She leaves eight children—Thomas, George W., N. M. and James Maddox; Mrs. Margaret Crane, of Kentucky; Mrs. Serene Lane, of Missouri; Mrs. Lucinda McCoy and Mrs. Nancy Lane. The funeral was held this morning at 10 o'clock at the M. E. church in Mt. Zion, and the interment was in the Mt. Zion cemetery. Rev. Dancy conducted the services.

Mrs. Edward Bell died of typhoid pneumonia at 11:50 p. m., Friday, October 12, at her home, 1114 North Monroe street, aged 25 years. Last week Mrs. Bell was much improved, and it was thought she would recover, but she suffered a relapse which resulted in her death. The deceased leaves a husband and a son eighteen months old. Time of the funeral not yet fixed.

A "Hit" Everywhere.

"In Old Kentucky" made its hit before it went into New York last season for the long run. It was unqualifiedly endorsed in Pittsburgh, Washington and Baltimore. No play produced in New York last season was so warmly commended by the press. Mr. Meltzer, probably the ablest dramatic critic in this country, said in the New York World: "In Old Kentucky" gives you no time to think. It sweeps you on from incident to incident, from act to act, from sensation to sensation, till you reach the climax, an extremely realistic race scene. The scenes are truthful and the first act simply takes away your breath." "In Old Kentucky" will be at the Grand Thursday evening, Oct. 18.

A Prize Fight on Hand.

One of the possible near future sporting events is another mill, but it may be said that none of those engaged in the late fracas at Kappa will take any active part in the affair. The fight will be between "Kid" Bain and a fellow not very well known in this vicinity. Bain is the man who fought the "Dunphy" near Springfield a few days before the latter's go with McCarthy on the Mackinaw. A spot in the neighborhood of Decatur has been selected for the sport.
